You are hereby notified that:

1. A hearing on your request to challenge the validity or enforcement of an order registered in this tribunal is scheduled for:

DATE

TIME

PLACE

2. It is your responsibility to furnish evidence to prove the defenses which you have raised.
3. You may represent yourself or be represented by an attorney at the hearing, but it is your responsibility to obtain legal counsel if you wish to do so. The child support enforcement agency involved in this matter is providing services to the party registering the order, but does not represent that party in an attorney/client sense. The hearing official is an impartial decision-maker and cannot give you legal advice.
4. As a result of the hearing, the following are actions that may occur:
- The tribunal of this State will confirm the registered order and action to enforce the order will follow; or
  - The tribunal may stay enforcement of the registered order; or
  - The tribunal may continue the proceeding to permit production of additional relevant evidence.
5. Any uncontested portion of the order may be enforced using all remedies available under the laws of this State.
